September 10, 2009

Dear Members of the Bar:

Monday, September 21, 2009, a caseload reassignment involving four judicial departments (Judge Kathy Hardcastle, Judge Linda Bell, Judge Donald Mosley, and Judge Abbi Silver) will be effective.

The actual caseload transfer will occur the weekend of September 19th and 20th, 2009. On Monday, September 21, 2009, the four judicial departments' calendars will reflect the following changes:

- Judge Kathy Hardcastle, Department 4, will acquire a mixed civil/criminal caseload (Criminal Track 11).
- Judge Linda Bell, Department 7, will acquire a mixed civil/criminal caseload (Criminal Track 5).
- Judge Donald Mosley, Department 14, will acquire a mixed criminal/mortgage foreclosure caseload (Criminal Track 11).
- Judge Abbi Silver, Department 15, will acquire a mixed civil/criminal caseload (Criminal Track 5).

This letter is to formally advise you that your case(s) may be reassigned if any current case is in one of the above District Court departments. Effective September 21, 2009, any pending or future District Court matters, for reassigned cases, will be heard in the department consistent with the information above.

In the event you have not exercised a peremptory challenge and wish to do so, you must exercise the peremptory challenge in accordance with Supreme Court Rule 48.1 and the case will be randomly reassigned.

Should you need to confirm the newly assigned department or future court dates, you may view District Court's on-line case inquiry information at the respective District Court web site:
