Eighth Judicial District Court Clerk's Office To Begin New Hours Of Operation In May

Clerk's Office To Operate Monday Through Friday 9 a.m. To 4 p.m.

The Eighth Judicial District Court Clerk's Office will change hours of operation to Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The new hours will go into effect on May 9.

The court was asked by Clark County officials to reduce court-wide personnel costs due to revenue shortfalls facing the county. Court operations have been reviewed to determine the best way to trim personnel costs.

The Eighth Judicial District Court faces significant personnel shortages in the Clerk of the Court division, while demand remains high. Already squeezed by shrinking support staff and high demand for legal document processing, the change in hours is necessary to process the daily average of 3,500 documents filed in the Clerk's Office.

"Maintaining an appropriate service level is a high priority for our court," said Chief Judge Jennifer P. Togliatti. "After careful evaluation, this appears to be the most effective way to reduce personnel costs from already depleted staffing levels in the Clerk's Office. I ask for the patience and understanding of those who use our services during these difficult economic times."
