Family Law Self-Help Center

The Family Law Self-Help Center has been serving self-represented litigants at family court since 1999. The Self-Help Center works to increase access to the legal system by providing legal information and court-approved forms to self-represented litigants. Staff is available to answer questions about court rules, court procedure, and general family law topics. The Self-Help Center operates as a partnership between the Clark County Courts and Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada.

Family Law Ask-A-Lawyer Program

The Family Law Ask-A-Lawyer program provides self-represented litigants an opportunity to get free legal advice regarding their family law matter. Volunteer attorneys are available for 15 minute private consultations each week at family court so litigants can understand their rights and legal options. The Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada's Pro Bono Project operates this program.

Pro Bono Project

Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada's Pro Bono Project coordinates private attorneys who generously volunteer to provide free legal assistance to individuals who cannot afford an attorney. The Pro Bono Project offers many opportunities for attorneys to contribute pro bono services. Lawyers volunteer to represent a client or answer legal questions at Ask-a-Lawyer sessions. The Pro Bono Project offers CLE training seminars, mentors and a number of support services to assist volunteers.
