

Eighth Judicial District Court

Information Technology Division

Effective June 11, 2018 for The Eighth Judicial District Court: Arbitration documents may be efiled through File & Serve.

Effective June 25, 2018, Arbitration filings will no longer be accepted over the counter at the ADR office and must be electronically filed.

We understand that a change like this will impact you and your firm and it is important to us that we make this transition as smooth as possible. File & Serve Web Training sessions are offered on Tyler Technologies Self-Support Page along with information on how to file.

For additional information on how to eFile and a list of new ADR document codes, please visit The Eighth Judicial District Court's website.
