DISTRICT COURT
CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

In the Matter of)
)
Assignment of Cases by the Family)
Division of the Eighth Judicial District)	ADMINISTRATIVE
Court)	ORDER NO. 02-2
_____)

Pursuant to the request for clarification by Presiding Judge Dianne Steel and Judge Robert Gaston of the Family Division of the previous instructions given to CMC for the redistribution of cases effective in January of 2003; and

In light of the 2000 decision of the family court judges to dedicate additional judicial resources to the juvenile division; and

Since it was determined that the abuse neglect/dependency juvenile judge's calendar would be a "full time" judge due to the blending of the State with the County workers; and

Based upon the fact that it was determined that the delinquency judge's calendar was determined to be a "part-time" judge position and that the presiding duties could be performed in tandem with this calendar; and

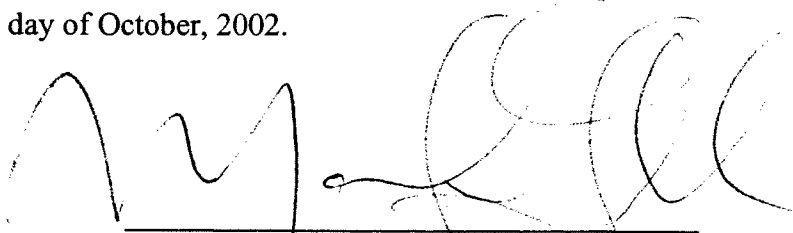

1 Further based upon the fact that these determinations regarding the time
2 required to perform the two calendars was not researched at the time of being
3 designated as "full-time" or "half-time; and 4

5 Since there will be yet another full judicial position added to the domestic 6 calendars making a total of ten Family Division domestic judges; and

7 Due to the fact that the two juvenile judges have agreed to work with each
8 through workload assignments and master assignments to reduce the calendar
9 responsibilities from the current presiding judge so as not to interfere with his 10 additional presiding duties and his "full-time" calendar;
11

12 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that pursuant to EDCR 1.30, the caseload
13 redistribution currently being prepared by CMC shall stay in effect through December
14 31, 2003 and that the two juvenile judges work out any workload changes necessary so 15 that the status quo of the past two years remain with the presiding judge duties and the 16 juvenile court duties being accomplished within the juvenile division.
